

“I do strongly believe that circumcision is the most evil violation that has taken hold of the American population, and I mean throughout the entire history of the United States.”

“We must be willing to vilify circumcision and call it for what it is — horrifying, yes, evil. We must unequivocally call to account those who perpetuate it. This includes ALL circumcisers. And yes, it includes parents too — if they have been informed, and still persist in doing it.”

“Circumcised males frequently exhibit an irrational terror at the prospect of a vasectomy. They finally go reluctantly after their wife has had at least two abortions. There is the potential for one million abortions caused by circumcision every year.”

“Wouldn’t it be fun to see a film where all the circumcisers get blasted to smithereens, sliced and diced and put through a wood chipper to the tune of ‘So long, farewell’ from the Sound of Music.”

“Circumcision is an intimate sexual encounter between an adult and a baby. All the power flows in one direction; all the anguish in the other.”

“One of the ways regret parents can make up for their terrible mistake is to accept that they need to be publicly and verbally abused in front of everyone. They can't give back their son's foreskin, but the least they can do is let themselves be publicly berated.”

“At least Jeffrey Dahmer did not lie about what he was doing. Unlike the serial circumciser, Dahmer did not call his crimes ‘medical procedures.’ He never tried to justify the killing and eating of young men.”

“I wish I could go into every newborn nursery and beat up every doctor and nurse that still defends circumcision... They need a punch in the face from us.”

“I react by, sometimes not sleeping well for months, not eating well, feeling stressed, depressed and I harbor a deep seated sorrow that just refuses to go away. I shrink and I retreat into oblivion. This happens every single time a loved one circumcises her son.”

“The Jews are evil and I hate them.
Fuck the Jews 100 times over.
Listen Jews: Have you ever considered that there may be a reason people hate you? Maybe it is because you torture little children.”
